High Five Tour At Richmond Ford July 13, 2013

On July 13, 2013, the cross country Wounded Warrior Family Support High Five Tour came to Richmond!

Richmond Ford and the Central Virginia Mustang Club hosted the gathering at Richmond Ford. The morning was cloudy and cooler than it had been which everyone appreciated a great deal.

We also had members of the Roaring Renegades Mustang Club and Victory 7 Mustang Club attend the event also.

CVMC had a great turnout!
Thanks to all of the club members for attending. A special thanks to Ray Louth for all of the work he put into making this even successful. Thanks Ray!!!

A special thanks to Richmond Ford and everyone who donated to the Wounded Warrior Family Support Fund. The funds go to help the families of our Wounded Heroes who gave a lot for our Country!

The Roaring Renegades Mustang Club escorted the High Five Tour to Fredericksburg and beyond.

God Speed High Five Tour!

Stars, Stripes, and Stangs National Mustang Show July 5th, 2013

On the weekend of July 5th, several club members descended on Asheville, NC, for the Stars, Stripes, and Stangs National Mustang Show.

Everyone headed down on July 4th, dodging rain showers all the way. Friday brought a mixture of sun and rain as we all registered our cars and headed to our show space.

Saturday morning met us with a soaked show field and provided us with lots of water to get off of the cars. While the sun made an occasional appearance, this participant counted five rain showers before being judged in the afternoon. Naturally, once we all were judged, the sun came out, and the sky was beautiful! In the end, all the hard work paid off as Sunday showed us our efforts were not in vain. All CVMC participants came away with a trophy.

Congratulations to all of our club members for another fantastic show. We all encourage our members to join MCA and attend National shows. If you would like more information, Dave Dickey is our resident MCA expert, and if you check out the list below, there are several others that know a thing or two about having a successful show! All of us would love the chance to "talk show" with you!!

Mustang Week 2013

The first word that comes to mind is WOW! You just would not believe the sheer number of Mustangs you will see. I mean there is at least one Mustang from every year they were produced. I mean factory original 1964 1/2 to highly modified 2014 Mustang 5.0 with twin turbos pumping out 900-1000 hp.

The sights and sounds are unexplainable. You will see every wheel and tire combination you can imagine and every color of the rainbow and some spectacular engine compartments. Most of the really nice cars are trailered to Myrtle Beach, which I don't blame them at all. The time, money, blood, sweat and tears spent on these cars is mind numbing.

There is plenty to do in Myrtle Beach during the week. We arrived Sunday early evening. We stayed at Holiday Sands South in the condo section. It was a very nice oceanfront room. They are a big supporter of Mustang Week and offered a 20% discount on rooms.

Monday there were no scheduled events so you have all day at the beach or to sight see.

Tuesday was the official Meet and Greet held at the Palace Theater and there were tons of cars which were overflowing into the grassy areas.

Wednesday is Myrtle Beach Speedway. This is where you can show off your skills on the autocross circuit, do some fun runs on the speedway or enter the burnout contest. If you entered any event it costs 20 dollars, spectating was 15 dollars, all of which included the Thrill and fireworks show after the burnout contest.

Thursday is mostly a cruise day with different car era's. Fox body, New Edge, Coyote are the most attended ones.

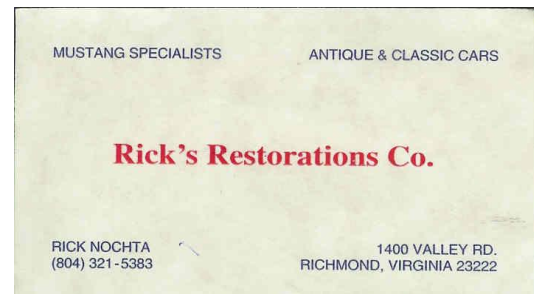

We opted for the SVT Performance website cruise which had over 100 cars. The cruise ended up at a restaurant called The Mellow Mushroom. SVTP had free pizzas and wings waiting when we got there. It was a fabulous time. SVTP is a wonderful website to be a member of.

All of the people are willing to help out if you have a question or just want to show your car off or want to sell something.

The best part of the whole week is Friday. This is when all the cars show up and roll onto the show field. There are cars as far as you can see and then some. Just talking with different owners about the cars is as fun as looking at them.

If any of you have never been to Mustang Week I highly encourage you to go. You will not be disappointed at all.

Chesterfield County Fair Parade August 23, 2013

We will make the lap around the fair and park for the rest of the evening. Should be a nice crowd this year cause this is the fair's 100th year. This years band is Flashback.

CVMC Cruise In's for 2013

COME ON AND GO ON A CRUISE OR A CRUISE IN.

Your Cruise committee tries to schedule a monthly event in the months of April thru December. We know everyone can't go to all of the events for various reasons. That is why we try to have at least one per month so everyone can get to one or more. For those of you that have been on previous events, I believe we have had a lot of fun. Come out and meet fellow club members and their families. Meet members of other car clubs. Get valuable information about Ford Mustangs and other Ford models. Our charity Cruise-In to McGuire Veterans Hospital last fall was a wonderful event. To see the smiles on the veterans faces looking at the cars was priceless. There is a lot of volunteer time and hours that go into planning and coordinating these events. So bring the family out to a Cruise- In picnic or any of these fun filled events. If you have an event you would like to suggest, let your Cruise Committee know your thoughts on it. We will try to make it happen if at all possible.

U.S. Air Force
Thunderbirds Edition
Ford Mustang
Celebrates Aviation
Team's 60th
Anniversary, Supports
Young Eagles

- One-of-a-kind 2014 Ford Mustang design inspired by 60th anniversary of acclaimed U.S. Air Force Thunderbirds to be sold at charity auction Aug. 1 at EAA AirVenture in Oshkosh, Wis.
- Sale will benefit the EAA Young Eagles organization: Ford auction vehicles have collectively raised nearly $2 million in recent years to support Young Eagles
- This one-of-a-kind car is VIN 0001 of the 2014 model year and boasts unique body treatments above and below the vehicle

DEARBORN, Mich., July 1, 2013 – The engineering and design teams at Ford Motor Company have produced a unique U.S. Air Force Thunderbirds Edition 2014 Ford Mustang GT. This car will be donated by Ford to be sold at the Gathering of Eagles charity event on Thursday, Aug. 1 during the Experimental Aircraft Association (EAA) AirVenture Oshkosh 2013 – the World's Greatest Aviation Celebration.

All proceeds from the car donation and sale will benefit the EAA Young Eagles program, which has provided free introductory flights to more than 1.6 million young people since 1992, helping inspire and motivate the next generation of leaders, aviators and innovators.

Ford is the exclusive automotive sponsor of EAA AirVenture Oshkosh, held July 29 through Aug. 4 at Wittman Regional Airport in Oshkosh, Wis.

"The dedication and excellence displayed by the United States Air Force Thunderbirds are qualities we also celebrate at Ford," said Edsel B. Ford II, a member of the Ford board of directors. "With this year's beautiful U.S. Air Force Thunderbirds Edition Mustang, we've captured the recognizable symbols of their stature and paired it with the innovation our Ford design and engineering teams build into all of our products.

"Through this project," Ford added, "we take great pride in continuing our support for EAA and the Young Eagles organization."

This unique U.S. Air Force Thunderbirds Ford Mustang GT celebrates and commemorates the 60th anniversary of the U.S. Air Force Thunderbirds, the fastest, multi-jet flight demonstration team in the world. Thunderbirds fly the F-16 Falcon, known for its glossy red, white and blue paint scheme.

This one-of-a-kind car is VIN 0001. The design of the modified 2014 Mustang GT 5.0-liter glass-roof coupe exudes a creative connection to the Thunderbirds, with a contemporary flair for the serious collector.

The exterior will showcase a custom brilliant white paint with red and blue accents, as well as markings and logos, tying it to the Thunderbirds' F-16 Falcon aircraft. The unique treatment includes wide body modifications and a handcrafted and painted "belly pan" that emulates the F-16 Thunderbird appearance. TS Designs handcrafted the front and rear wide body elements, Creations n' Chrome crafted the unique belly pan – plus applied the paint and markings – and Forgiato created custom 22-inch wheels to further differentiate this Mustang from anything else on the road.

Unique interior details of the U.S. Air Force Thunderbirds Edition Ford Mustang GT include a modified navigation screen, instrument cluster and rear seat-delete. The car's Recaro® seats include embroidered Thunderbirds elements. Additional features include unique sill plates and puddle lamps that project the aircraft silhouette when the doors open.

Ford Racing components will boost the performance to an extraordinary level. With the addition of a Ford Racing supercharger, suspension handling pack and Brembo® brakes, the U.S. Air Force Thunderbirds Edition Mustang will exude class, power and performance.

Ford Design Manager Melvin Betancourt and Mustang Chief Nameplate Engineer Dave Pericak led the design and engineering teams that developed the U.S. Air Force Thunderbirds Edition Mustang GT.

The Young Eagles auction is part of the EAA Gathering of Eagles gala. The Gathering of Eagles annually draws more than 1,000 aviation enthusiasts in support of Young Eagles and other EAA programs that inspire young people to become engineers, aviators, astronauts, scientists and innovators – the aviation pioneers of tomorrow.

"Ford is a longtime, committed sponsor of EAA and AirVenture, bringing value to those who make Oshkosh the pinnacle of their aviation year," said Jack Pelton, EAA Chairman. "These specialty vehicles reflect the depth of Ford's commitment and allow EAA to provide support to its valuable programs and dedicated members in helping us grow the next generation of aviators."

The U.S. Air Force Thunderbirds Edition joins five other one-of-a-kind Mustangs created by the Ford design and engineering teams for the EAA Young Eagles auction in recent years, each generating excitement among aviation and automotive enthusiasts alike. Ford vehicles sold at auction during past EAA AirVenture events have collectively raised nearly $1.9 million to support Young Eagles.

The unique vehicles produced by Ford in support of EAA Young Eagles include the Mustang AV8R, with cues from the F-22 "Raptor," which in 2008 helped introduce the glass-roof canopy and delivered a record auction contribution of $500,000. In 2009 Ford's AV-X10 "Dearborn Doll" Mustang was crafted in honor of World War II aircraft. In 2010 two automotive icons – the late Carroll Shelby, a former U.S. Air Force flight instructor, and Jack Roush, longtime P-51 pilot – collaborated for the first time to create the SR-71 "Blackbird" Mustang inspired by the legendary reconnaissance jet. The "Blue Angels" Mustang in 2011 celebrated 100 years of United States naval aviation, and last year's "Red Tails" Mustang paid homage to the Tuskegee Airmen, the courageous squadron of P-51 Mustang pilots who were the United States' first African American military airmen.

During EAA AirVenture, Ford will offer attendees access to the latest advances in automobile technology and feature exciting attractions and fan favorites at the Ford Hangar on the grounds of Wittman Regional Airport. Ford activities include top-tier entertainment and interactive components that will add excitement for the hundreds of thousands of aviation fans in attendance.

To participate in the auction, candidates must prequalify by contacting the EAA development office at 800.236.1025 or development@eaa.org

Sponsors supporting the build of the U.S. Air Force Thunderbirds Edition Mustang include Creations n' Chrome, TS Designs, Ford Racing Performance Parts, Forgiato and Brembo Brakes.

Brad Keselowski Wins Iowa!

- Cup champ making most of double-duty weekend

NEWTON, Iowa -- Brad Keselowski made a busy weekend well worth the trouble.

The defending NASCAR Sprint Cup Series champion was the lone driver making frequent trips between Iowa and Pocono Raceway, where he'll compete in Sunday's premier series event.

Keselowski will be toting a gas pump trophy back with him after winning the fifth annual NASCAR Nationwide Series U.S. Cellular 250 Saturday night at Iowa Speedway. He has won the last three Nationwide starts he has made for Penske Racing, despite not having a Sprint Cup victory this season.

"Flying back and forth is definitely work, but the work is worth the reward," Keselowski said.

"That's having a fast race car and a great team to be able to come here to come here to Iowa Speedway and win this."

Keselowski said that might grab more attention than it should, and that is the triumphant effort of everyone working with the No. 22 car Saturday. "What should get publicity is having a fast car," Keselowski said, "and executing through some adversity."

The key moment of the race came after the third caution, with the Discount Tire Ford starting seventh with less than 50 laps remaining. As Trevor Bayne and Brian Vickers were battling side-by-side for the lead, Keselowski made his move. He shot through the leaders, moving quickly to the front and grabbing the lead on Lap 216.

The choice to take four new tires proved to be a winning strategy, despite slipping a spot in order. "It was hard-fought to make it happen," Keselowski said. "Certainly, that yellow was a turning point in the race for us."

Crew chief Jeremy Bullins may have been at the heart of the decision, but he credited Keselowski for taking advantage of the situation.

"He took care of the rest of it," Bullins said. "He did a great job all night."

Not only did Keselowski overcome the other 39 drivers in the field, but he persevered through a number of issues during the race. He received an early penalty, after running in the top five with a shot to jump a spot or two during a pit stop under caution. Keselowski was assessed an outside tire violation, falling to the rear of the field for the restart. He also suffered an overheating problem that hindered him midway through the race. He remained patient before taking the lead and pulling away from the field.

While all the mishaps prevented him from contending early, he had to maintain focus. It was a struggle at times.

"As a driver, those are probably some of the most difficult moments, knowing you have a fast race car and circumstances are playing against you," Keselowski said. "There are two ways you can react to that. You can let the moment define you or you can define the moment."

It was Keselowski's first win at Iowa Speedway since 2009. He noted the similarities to that victory to his most recent one. His team fought troubles that day, used different strategies and beat Kyle Busch's team, which he called one of the best at the time.

"It was very much a defining moment," Keselowski said. "Especially with it being the inaugural race here. It was a win that, at that time, was the biggest of my career."

Penske Racing managed to sweep the top two spots with Sam Hornish Jr. placing second. Vickers was third, which is his first top-three finish at Iowa.

Hornish started 14th and came away with his fourth runner-up finish of the season, but said being the top Nationwide finisher was a boost for points, making second easier to accept.

"I felt we had maybe a third or fourth-place car and we finished second," Hornish said. "I'm pretty proud of the way the guys did a great job on pit road for us. I'm actually pretty happy with it."

For the second straight race at Iowa Speedway, Austin Dillon led the majority of the race but failed to seal the victory. He led 116 laps, but fell back to fifth for the final restart. It resembled his performance in June's DuPont Pioneer 250, where he led 207 of 250 and was runner-up to Bayne.

Dillon decided to take four tires when many of the leaders -- including Vickers, Regan Smith, Elliott Sadler and Bayne -- took two tires to move ahead of him. Dillon's fourth-place finish kept him in front of the season points standing with a 14-point lead over Smith.

Pole-sitter Drew Herring paced the field for the first 26 laps, surrendering the lead to Smith and dropping back. He spun out on Lap 55, bringing out the race's first caution and ending the longest green-flag stretch to start a race this season.

MCA News August 2013

Our fall show now appears in the Events section of the MCA's website but has not been published in the July issue of Mustang Times. It should appear in the August issue.

When I receive the results of the July 20th Board of Directors meeting I will review that draft and report back to you. I can tell you the following clubs have until September 1 to update their status and required information or they will be dropped as an MCA chartered club: Mobile Bay Mustang Club, Southern Stallions Mustang Club(AL); Arkansas Valley Mustang Club, Ozarks Regional Mustang Club(AR); Central Delaware Mustang Association, Lower Delaware Mustang Club(DE); Palm Beach Mustang Club, Surf Mustang Club of South Florida(FL); Columbus City Stangz(GA); Rock Valley Mustang Club(IL); Shiloh Valley Mustang Association, Southside Mustang Club(IN); Wildhorse Mustang Club(KY); Classic Mustang Association of New Orleans(LA); Chrome Pony Mustang Club, Sandhills Mustang Club(NC); Mustang Club of Buffalo(NY); Black Swamp Mustangs(OH); Centre Region Mustang Club(PA); Golden Circle Mustang Club, Lakeway Mustang Club(TN); Texas Panhandle Mustang Club(TX); Green Mountain Mustang Club(VT); Inland Empire Mustang Club(WA); Badgerland Mustang Club(WI); Hoof Beats MustangClub(WY)

According to the Grand National show website, Labor Day weekend, at Walt Disney World registration closed July 31.

The Blue Ridge Mustang Club's "Stars, Stripes, & Stangs" show was not a stellar producing show. It rained a lot which caused lots of problems from hotel cancellations, guest parking, show parking spaces, where to park and unload trailers, to hotel staff. In all my years of attending shows this was the first time I heard and saw where show attendees picked up and moved their assigned parking space numbers. As a result my judging team could not find a Mustang (or its space number) and therefore it was not judged.

At the judges meeting I was really surprised with a recognition pin for over 15 years of judging MCA shows. The following CVMC members earned the following awards: Johnny & Joan McGrath received Silver in Concours Trailer & Robin Reese received Gold in Modified class, while Michelle Jordon, Dave Thomas & myself received 1st place in Occasionally Driven class.

Registration for the Mustang 50th Birthday Celebration is now open and on line. Here is the only link to make those reservations for The Pony Drive, Charlotte or Las Vegas Motor Speedways and hotel rooms:

<https://www.mmx2reservations.com/cabarrus/pc/MCAMustang>.

These room reservations are limited and going fast. I just checked, as of 23 July the following hotels @ exit 49 (Concord) indicated NO rooms available from 16 to 20 April 2014. These hotels are the Embassy Suites (which is the host hotel and Celebration headquarters); Hilton Garden Inn; Holiday Inn Express; Residence Inn (Marriott); Sleep Inn and Suites; & Wingate (Wyndham). So if you are planning to participate in the Celebration my advice would be to make your room reservations immediately in the Charlotte area. Trust me, because this celebration is so big the hotels close to the speedway are already sold out!

However there are still rooms available at other hotels in the area. If something comes up that you cannot attend you can always cancel.

The MCA club membership incentive drive for each new member has been reinstated. At our club's board meeting the $10.00 MCA was awarded us will be passed on the each new MCA member. So that means that instead of the new member paying the standard MCA dues of $50.00, that new member will pay only $40.00 to me. I have a special form I have to send to MCA with the new member's application. As part of your membership package, a great magazine, Mustang Times, is included and only available to MCA members. Besides a message from the MCA president, information on MCA judging, the magazine has lots of ideas on how to fix or repair all year models, superb pictures, and a page on new or hard to get remanufactured special parts. There is a listing of shows and a section for you to sell your Mustang or parts. If you want to join MCA, please see me during the break:

Check our newsletter, club and face book websites for upcoming parades, shows and cruise-ins in the Richmond metro area.

News from the Car Club Council

There have been one license plate bills introduced into the Virginia General Assembly for a number of years now with absolutely no success due to lobbying by the State Police and other government officials. Ohio and Missouri have been considering one license plate bills also. Recently the Missouri one plate bill died when the legislation session ended without action on the bill. This bill would have allowed a second plate to be purchased if desired. In Ohio the one plate legislation is still being considered. Law enforcement officials are strongly opposed to the measure. In fact one police chief has stated that going to one plate could be fatal to police officers. He explained that police officers would have to look for the rear plate when there is not a front plate taking their eyes off the road making it dangerous for the officers. One license plate could kill – that's a new one! Apparently we live in times that allow someone who is against or for something to just make up "facts". Perhaps another reason law officials are for keeping front license plates is the new automatic license plate readers. These devices record license plates. The ACLU has come out against the use of license plate readers. The following is from the ACLU website: "Automatic license plate readers have the potential to create permanent records of virtually everywhere any of us has driven, radically transforming the consequences of leaving home to pursue private life, and opening up many opportunities for abuse. The tracking of people's location constitutes a significant invasion of privacy, which can reveal many things about their lives, such as what friends, doctors, protests, political events, or churches a person may visit.

In our society, it is a core principle that the government does not invade people's privacy and collect information about citizens' innocent activities just in case they do something wrong. Clear regulations must be put in place to keep the government from tracking our movements on a massive scale."

You can read more about them at <http://www.aclu.org/alpr>

If you think the ACLU has gone off the reservation on automatic plate readers then check out the fact that the TSA is now searching cars parked at airport parking lots – without a warrant. The TSA has ordered airport valet attendants to search parked cars without a warrant and without prior notification given to the vehicle's owner. In fact the TSA places a bright yellow card in the car stating "Thank You For Your Patronage Your vehicle has been inspected under TSA regulations"

So much for those things we used to call the "Bill of Rights" and "Constitution".

We all know red light cameras are about one thing – making money for the government and the companies that run the red light program. That's right the companies run the program not your government. Cincinnati, Ohio Judge Robert Ruehlman ordered red light cameras not only to be shut off but to be impounded – taken off the streets for good. This is because the local government and the company running the program are in contempt of court from an order the judge issued. Ruehlman found in March that the speed cameras were unconstitutional, essentially then ordering them shut down, along with the speed ticket program. He also ruled that outstanding tickets issued as a result of the system did not have to be paid. But the cameras were still up and running and $48,000 in fines was collected after his order was issued.

This is from the VDOT web page that has info on the Virginia red light camera program: "The 2007 General Assembly enacted legislation that allows counties, cities and towns to use red light camera enforcement – commonly called photo enforcement. This legislation provides localities the option of installing and operating red light running camera systems. In 2012, the General Assembly removed VDOT from the approval process.

The number of intersections where a locality is allowed to operate photo enforcement is based on population. The legislation allows no more than one intersection per 10,000 residents. See the below Red Light Running Camera (Photo Enforcement) Engineering Safety Analysis Guidelines for a list of 2010 population data.

Before red light running cameras can be installed at any intersection, a locality must complete an engineering safety analysis for the specific intersection, taking into account the intersection's accident rate, its red light running violation rate and the difficulty law enforcement officer's experience in safely apprehending violators among other factors."

For a list of all 118 red light camera locations in Virginia and the amount for the fine at specific locations go to <http://www.photoenforced.com/> and put in red light cameras, Virginia and click search database.
